IT'S BURGERTIME!

People always ask us for BurgerTime. Unfortunately, due to licensing restrictions, we haven't been able to re-release the Intellivision version. But the next best thing is the REAL thing. The original arcade version of BurgerTime is featured on ARCADE'S GREATEST HITS: THE MIDWAY COLLECTION 2, now available on our website. If you liked the Intellivision version, you'll LOVE the arcade version - WE do. This is the version WE played for hours on end back in 1982 (research, of course) while the Intellivision cartridge was being developed. As a bonus, the other six games in this collection - Blaster, Joust 2, Moon Patrol, Splat, Spy Hunter & Tapper - are a lot of fun, too! For PlayStation.

FREE SONG: "SURFING ON THIN ICE!"

To celebrate Intellivision's 20th birthday, world-famous game composer George "The Fat Man" Sanger (Loom, 7th Guest, Wing Commander) has revisited his very first game theme - the music for Intellivision's THIN ICE - and given it a new arrangement. At the beginning of "Surfing on Thin Ice" you hear an Intellivision playing the simple melody. Then the drums kick in and we're off on a rocking surf extravaganza!

NEW WEB PAGES!

We've added new web pages packed with game histories, credits and trivia. The pages cover Mattel's M Network for Atari 2600, IBM PC and Apple II, plus

Activision and Imagic's games for Intellivision. (The Activision and Imagic games will be included on our INTELLIVISION ROCKS! collection, available in October.)
