The National Videogame Museum in Frisco, Texas

The National Videogame Museum in Frisco, Texas, just north of Dallas, opened to the public last month for a shake-down cruise to make sure all the bugs were worked out. This Friday, May 14th, the Museum will receive it's official Grand Opening and Ribbon

Cutting at 10am. It will be open to the public for the normal hours (10am to 8pm) and price ($12). Come meet Blue Sky Ranger Keith Robinson for pictures and autographs and to talk about the early days of video game and Intellivision development. Challenge him to an Intellivision battle, PONG or one of the other games on display. Be part of this historic event!
