PLAY BREAKOUT!

First released over 43 years ago in 1976, Atari®'s Breakout® arcade game was designed by Atari® co-founder Nolan Bushnell, and engineered by none other than Steve Jobs and Steve Wozniak, who would of course later go on to found Apple! Breakout® is lauded as being simple but incredibly addictive as you use your bat to bounce a ball off the bricks above in order to try and clear them all and reach the next level!

This exclusive version of Atari®'s Breakout® will only be available on the Intellivision Amico™ console launching in 2021. Although the game will start off in original "vertical mode", it won't take long to utilize the full 16:9 aspect ratio and turn things sideways! Part "block buster" and part 2D side scrolling shooter, you'll only have a limited amount of time to get to the goal and BREAKOUT! Will you be able to get to the end on time? You'll have 4 minutes and 4 chances to complete the task!

Although for this PC demo you will use your mouse to control the paddle, when the game is released on Amico at launch players will be able to utilize the vertical touchscreen to control the paddle and can use motion controls (once a ball is hit) to angle, aim, spin and curve in the direction that you'd like the ball to go. And don't forget, we'll also be adding multi-player couch co-op and versus modes as well!
