Nanochess needs our help!

Oscar Toledo G. , also known as Nanochess, the maker of the IntyBasic programming tool and many many Intellivision, Atari, and Colecovision homebrew games has suffered a terrible tragedy, the loss of his beloved wife. Any assistance, large or small, in this time of need is immensely appreciated.

Also a fund drive/sale thread is HERE.

Many of the homebrew games we enjoy would not be a reality without the work of Oscar (and many others) and Intybasic. Thanks to all!
