

Intellivision Pre-Order Update

Dear Valued Amico Pre-Owner,

Thank you for your continued support during these unprecedented times. Our Intellivision team is doing everything we can to get Amico into your hands as soon as possible. In the meantime, as a small token of our appreciation, we wanted to send you something now for being so patient and for sticking with us as we continue to face manufacturing challenges.

The Video Games Live concert series has been touring the world for over 16 years. The multi-award-winning show has been breaking attendance records and recording best-selling Billboard Top 10 albums since its inception. Over the next 24 hours, you will be receiving a download code e-mail from Humble Bundle. The download contains a Video Games Live Collector's Edition Compendium and bonuses valued at over $200. It includes over 12 hours of some of the greatest award-winning video game music recorded and mixed in places like Abbey Road and Skywalker Ranch by talented symphonies, choirs, and soloists from around the world. You will be receiving 13 Video Games Live albums in .mp3 format (including extra tracks in the Collectors Edition versions) as well as the Earthworm Jim Anthology album and the award-winning Advent Rising soundtrack. This special Compendium also includes rare and exclusive documents, posters, a touring program, and much more. As extra special gifts, we also included original Earthworm Jim art and the blueprints for the Tron Light Cycle which was created for the first-ever Video Games Live performance at the Hollywood Bowl with the Los Angeles Philharmonic back in 2005.

We understand and acknowledge that this doesn't replace the disappointment we all share, but we did want to do something for your valued patience and understanding.

Thank you again for your unwavering support and we look forward to everyone being able to play Amico as soon as possible.
