The Amico Goodness Continues!

Thanksgiving Point

Hot on the heels of our successful event in Irvine, California - where dozens of guests lined up to experience Amico – we hosted an even larger follow-up event at Thanksgiving Point, in Salt Lake City, Utah. Our appearance drew a massive crowd, and hundreds of families were able to watch, discover, and play with family friendly Amico!

Collector's Boxed Editions

The allocation of pre-sale Limited Collector's Editions has been going extremely well (we are almost sold out). However, our European fans have indicated that they'd like a bit more information about the sale:

- PayPal is a payment method
- New territories have been added: Isle of Man, Ireland, Sweden, Denmark, Finland and India
- Shipping updated to be within 5 days (instead of 10 days)
- Special EU version (only available via Intellivision.com) with both PEGI and USK age rating available

Other great feedback!

The media and press continue to rave about Amico:

Best Buy Canada wrote THIS STORY on us after we sold out of the Glacier White and Black Amico consoles in just 48 hrs. You can read the full article HERE.

AARP featured us in both their print and online magazines (to an audience of nearly 40 million people). You can read them HERE.

And, lastly we had our first hands-on preview by one of the biggest video game websites in Europe, Eurogamer!

"Anyone who misses the Wii will make friends with the Amico". (this article was originally written in German, here is the English translation)

Until next time!
