INTELLIVISION REVOLUTION

Intellivision Revolution store update

If you purchased games in the last few weeks, these orders are going out this week. Some copies of the following games are still available: Jr. Pac-Man, IntyBASIC Showcase Vol. 1 & 3, Robot Rubble, League of Light, and more!

These are in limited quantity at this time.

PURCHASES UPDATE

Any previous orders that you may be waiting on will go out this week as well.

Many thanks EVERYONE for the patience, I have had a lot of attention on some personal family matters, and a by-product is unfortunately slower than wanted shipping and response, all is about cleared up now. Again, if you have a question on your order please contact me via the contact email in the STORE. Thanks for the interest and support in keeping the original Mattel

Intellivision alive!

X-Ray by Good Deal Games

Good Deal Games released X-Ray for the Mattel Intellivision, Programmed by Michael Hayes, featuring a fantastic x-ray of the Intellivision console.

In X-Ray, fire discovery lasers into a grid to find hidden Diffusers. You can't see into the Grid, but you can deduce where the Diffusers are hidden by firing lasers and observing the result. Use balls to mark where you think the Diffusers are concealed in this puzzle / board game title.

Includes BONUS Dilligas minigame. Good Deal Games also has other homebrew titles available, check them out!
