

The Amico Home™ snowball is rolling along and growing! We are reaching out today to announce a new game release, a new market place, and a new way to stay in touch with us and the enthusiastic Amico community.

Dart Frenzy™ Now Available!

Dart Frenzy is a super fun motion control game that the whole family can play together. It's all the fun of real darts with no holes in your walls or pets! Dart Frenzy features 7+ game modes plus rule variations. You can take turns like civilized gentle folk or throw simultaneously in frenzied head-to-head competition. Hey, maybe that's why it's called Dart Frenzy! 😊

Dart Frenzy is available now on the Google Play Store for Android. It is also available on the Amazon Appstore for Amazon's tablets and other Fire OS devices.

Amazon Appstore Official Launch

That's right! Amico Home has expanded into the Amazon Appstore, where you'll find:

- Amico Controller<sup>1</sup>
- Amico Home
- Dart Frenzy
- Missile Command
- ...and more coming very soon.

An Amazon tablet is a great choice to host Amico Home for a nice combination of screen size and portability. If you are looking for a BIG-screen Amico experience, look no further than the Amazon Fire TV Stick 4K which provides movie streaming services and can play Amico Home too! With the current discount, you can have Amico Home up and running on an Amazon Fire Stick 4K for just $29.99, or with the more powerful Amazon Fire Stick 4K Max for $44.99<sup>2</sup>.
